

Batu Isidore Siharulidze

Born in the Republic of Georgia in 1960.

Graduated from the Tbilisi State Academy of Fine Arts, as well as advance postgraduate degree from the All-Union Academy in Moscow.

In 1994 Batu Siharulidze Moved to US.

Batu has exhibited and participated in national and international, sculpture exhibits, competitions, art shows, and symposia in Georgia, the USA, Great Britain, China, India, Turkey, Russia, Spain and Portugal. His works, which are primarily in marble, granite, bronze, and fired clay are held in museums, private collections, and outdoor permanent displays around the world.

Batu is a professor and Head of Sculpture at Boston University in Boston.

Museums and Permanent Displays

Modern Art Museum, Tbilisi, Georgia

Rustavi Sculpture park, Rustavi, Georgia

B'nai B'rith Klutznick National Museum, Washington, D.C., USA

Henrico County High School, Richmond, VA, USA

Zimmerli Art Museum, Rutgers University, NJ, USA

Andres Institute of Art, Brookline, NH, USA

Contemporary Art Museum & Sculpture Garden, Acton, MA, USA

Treadwell's Art Mill, Bradford, Great Britain

Tomino City Center, Tomino, Spain

Uttarayan Foundation Sculpture Park, Baroda, India

Fuzhou City Museum, Fuzhou, China

Tongling City Park, Tongling, China

Jilin University, Changchun, China

Changchun Sculpture Park, Changchun, China

Hui'an City Display, Hui'an, China

Penza Art Museum & Legend Sculpture Garden, Penza, Russia

Peace Garden, Boarder of Turkey, Bulgaria, and Greece

Ankara University, Ankara, Turkey

Aspat Sculpture Museum, Bodrum, Turkey

Mersin Sculpture Garden, Mersin, Turkey

Cerveira International Sculpture Garden, Cerveira, Portugal